LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Jeff D. White received a car load of fine registered Hereford bulls this week from McCoy Bros., Roswell.

The Orr building, which stood near the bank, was moved to the country this week to where it will be put to service on a homestead.

J. E. Carry of Hereford, Texas received four car loads of steer yearlings from the Beeman ranch this week and shipped to Hereford. The price paid was not made public.

Ewing L. Lusk, candidate for County Commissioner, and Lon Cottingham, candidate for Treasurer, were in Kenna Saturday soliciting votes. They made a flying jitney trip to the east.

Frank M. Bechler passed here Tuesday en route for Olive, after a two weeks campaign in the plains and lower valley country. Mr. Bechler is more jubilant than ever since making the last canvass over the strongholds of his opponents.

Proof of the Pudding is In the Eating Thereof.

How long have the people of the north and northwest part of Chaves county been knocking at the door of recognition and it was not opened unto them?

Nine years or longer.

What recognition did they seek?

Public highway and a bridge and general development of that part of the county same as other parts of the county.

Why?

Because they have paid their part of the taxes and have received nothing in return.

Do you get recognition now?

Yes.

Who opened the door of recognition?

Lusk.

When?

Immediately after his appointment to the office as County Commissioner.

How?

By getting in after the immediate building of the bridge and a public highway through that part of the county, all of which are now under construction.

Consider well before casting your vote, who is giving you the first consideration and fair treatment that you have ever had in the administration of the county affairs.

Ewing L. Lusk, the present Commissioner from this district, having served one year by appointment, respectfully asks that you elect him to one whole term that he may complete several unfinished pieces of work that has been started through his influence and that are of vital importance to you. #### LIVESTOCK

Kansas City, Mo., Monday, May 1, 1916—Cattle closed last week with good prospects, which were realized today, when the 10000 head that arrived sold steady to a shade higher, and actively. Light weight steers showed more strength than heavy weights, but all classes sold as well as any one could ask. Choice natives were unloading today, but if quality is good enough they are eligible to $9.75, which was the top reached last week.

Stockers and feeders remain firm, fairly good stock steers around $7.75, choice ones $8.50, feeders $8.00 to $8.75, fleshy feeders at $9.

Kansas City, Wednesday, May 3.—Hogs receipts 12,000; markets lower. Bulk, $9.50@9.75; heavy, $9.65@9.80; light, $9.45@9.65; pigs, $8.25@9.10.

Cattle receipts 5,000; market strong. Prime fed steers, $9.35@9.65; western steers, $8.00@9.40; stockers, $7.00@8.75; calves $6.50@10.50.

A few days ago we heard a man say "The mice got to my land deeds and ate them up." Now if you are a patron of this bank you will be given a free space in our vault to place your valuable papers, where they will be safe from mice, fire and carelessness.

When in town you are welcome to make our office your headquarters—if the weather is cold, roast your shins by our stove, and if it is hot you may sit in the shade and fan yourself with the Kenna Record.

We take pleasure in assisting you with your financial difficulties if we can consistently do so, even if we have to work over hours to do it.
